Beloved Community,

I share with you the following pastoral letter from the national leadership of the United Church of Christ generated in response to the events in Charlottesville. While I agree with the sentiments in the letter, I confess that I found what I consider to be a glaring omission, that is to pray for those who are acting out their fear and hatred in these violent ways. In my sermon of August 20th I quoted Nelson Mandela who said that, No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin or his background or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love. One of the challenges facing us is how do we teach people to unlearn hatred and learn to love? I would be very interested in your response to the question and to the letter.

Peace,
Janet

Dear Members, Friends, Clergy, and Leaders of and within the United Church of Christ,

We, the Council of Conference Ministers and Officers of the United Church of Christ, strongly condemn the acts of violent hatred expressed by the white supremacists, Neo-Nazis, and Ku Klux Klan members, who marched in Charlottesville. Their white robes and burning crosses were replaced with polo shirts, khakis, and tiki torches, while their lynching was replaced with a speeding car barreling through a group of peaceful protesters with the intention of harming and killing others, which it did.

We confess that the events of Charlottesville are systemic and communal expressions of white privilege and racism that continues to pervade our nation's spiritual ethos. And if we only condemn the acts of August 12, 2017, without condemning the roots of racism, which perpetuate discrimination in our American schools, justice system, business, and healthcare systems, then we have sinned as well. We must work toward the Kin-dom of Heaven here on earth now for the sake of a just world for all.

We do this by committing to follow the ways of Jesus, who stood with the oppressed, spoke out against political and religious powers, and courageously embodied a just world for all as he sought to create it. Today, we must follow the ways of Jesus in addressing the hatred of white supremacists and racists among us.

Our local UCC churches must be true solidarity partners with those who march in the streets. Our UCC churches are encouraged to move from the sanctuary and walk alongside other clergy and community leaders who seek to resist, agitate, inform, and comfort. We must resist hatred and violence. We must also agitate ourselves...about any racism within or among us. We must inform ourselves...what our sacred stories reveal to us of a just world for all. We must lament and grieve with those who are injured or murdered during violent confrontations. And we must comfort those who have been discriminated against with the transformative love of God.

As we go forward, let us model the legacy of activism through our sacred call given to us by our UCC ancestors: May we be prophetic truth-tellers like our Congregational Christian forebears, who marched in public squares demanding equality for all. May we serve others, and remain faithful witnesses like our Evangelical and Reformed forebears, who tended to the needs of the forgotten.

In the days to come, may God's truth, mission, and courage be our guide to embodying the Kin-dom of Heaven here on earth.

SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATES

The committee has been meeting throughout the summer. To date we have met with Deborah Blood, UCC Conference Minister to review the search process and identify assistance available to our church. We have gathered information from the Holy Conversations, and our UCC core values to begin the update of our church profile.

Right now we want YOUR help because we need your input to shape our church for the future. There will be multiple opportunities to do this. First will be a survey in September. Then focus groups during the fall. Your feedback on many factors will be essential to making decisions in completing this search. Throughout this process please contact any member of this committee with questions. The committee members are as follows:

- Catherine Hannon = 837-1962 (catherineh116@gmail.com)
- Deb Gray (co-chair) = 433-0427 (Deborah.gray48@gmail.com)
- Dorothy Eckhardt = 829-4580 (dteckhardt@hotmail.com)
- Eric Tracy = 415-8196 (eritracymaine@gmail.com)
- Geoff Gattis = 781-2603 (ggattis@bathsavings.com)
- Janet Yancey-Wrona = 317-0960 (jwrona@maine.rr.com)
- Kyle Glover = 807-6929 (kyle.james.glover@gmail.com)
- Laura Rodas (co-chair) = 671-9255 (lnash8@aol.com)
- Susan Hayhurst = 329-0946 (susan.hayhurst@gmail.com)

Please be sure to attend service on Sunday, September 10 when the committee will be officially commissioned.

Thank you!
C. Hannon

Please note that Sunday, September 10, 2017 has several events happening during and after the service:

The congregation will be receiving new members. If you are interested in joining the church on Sunday, September 10, please contact Reverend Janet (233-7047 / jdorman@foresidechurch.org / or revjkdsf@yahoo.com) as soon as possible.

- During this service, the Pastoral Search Committee will also be commissioned. Please be sure to come and support and encourage these members as they start this most important process.
- AND...immediately following service, the Welcome Back/All Church Luncheon will be held. This year's menu will include a variety of all types of salads and finger rolls (egg/potato/tuna/ham/tossed/chicken, etc.) and a hoped- for array of deserts. This fine table will not happen however without your menu donations so please go the following website to sign-up! www.perfectpotluck.com. Coordinator's Last Name: Sklarz-Libby. Password: 8026. Call the office if you have any problems accessing this site.
- ALSO...if you have standard camera equipment, besides your smart phone, please consider stepping into the role of church photographer. This Sunday just lends itself to a lot of fine photographs, ones that can be used on the church website, as well as on the table at the November Peoples United Bank display table. Please contact the office for further details.
- EQUALLY IMPORTANT...Welcome back our Sunday School Teacher Beth Penrose!

Sunday School Updates (W. Tracy)

We are thrilled to announce that this fall will see the start of a Youth Group for youth in grades 6-8th grade. John Kipp and Lisa Nash, with help from Beth Penrose, will be leading this group twice a month throughout the year. The goal is to foster connection, to tackle faith questions and to interact with the wider community through conversations and activities, youth directed community service projects and fun gatherings (and snacks, of course!). While the planning group has some fun ideas for outings, projects and conversations, they hope that the middle schoolers will take the lead and share their ideas on what they would like from a Youth Group experience.

There will be a charge of $25 for the whole year, which will cover snacks and supplies (each member will receive a workbook).

We have reached out to area churches with the hopes that we can include other interested youth, and possibly coordinate planning. In addition, youth are encouraged to invite any interested friends to attend.

The first meeting will be September 17th, please see the flier for more detail on dates and times. If you are interested in signing up, please contact Christina Sklarz-Libby in the Church Office at cslibby@foresidechurch.org

YOUTH GROUP
Fall 2017

Join other middle school students as we create a youth group based on YOUR interests and ideas.

The Foreside Book Club...

(M. Hinkel)

...will resume on Tuesday Sept. 19th at 3:00 p.m. in the parlor when we will talk about A Man Called Ove. We would love to have any one join us for what is always a good time and a thoughtful discussion. All are welcome!

A Man Called Ove—Fredric Blackman

He's a curmudgeon—the kind of man who points at people he dislikes as if they were burglars caught outside his bedroom window. He has staunch principles, strict routines, and a short fuse. People call him “the bitter neighbor from hell.” But must Ove be bitter just because he doesn't walk around with a smile plastered to his face all the time? Behind the cranky exterior there is a story and a sadness. So when one November morning a chatty young couple with two chatty young daughters move in next door and accidentally flatten Ove's mailbox, it is the lead-in to a comical and heartwarming tale of unkempt cats, unexpected friendship, and the ancient art of backing up a U-Haul. All of which will change one cranky old man and a local residents' association to their very foundations.

On August 20th, we went to the Audubon with a few other families to participate in Family Church.

We discussed looking at the world around us and how God is reflected in what we see every day.

We explored nature by looking at the plants and wildlife, including the apple trees and pond life (frogs, "flat worms", tadpoles and two snapping turtles!) Family church was really fun, because it was church, but it was outside and we got to climb trees and enjoy nature. We would definitely like to do it again!

Destination Hogwarts

Calling all Harry Potter fans!

The Magic Is Back!

August 13-19

Campers Entering Grades 5-9

(C. Knudsen)

At "Destination Hogwarts" at Pilgrim Lodge, Rhys Harrison and Olivia Knudsen had the traditional fun of – swimming, boating, cook-outs, talent show, ice cream every day and interest groups – with a magical Harry Potter twist! They explored the lessons of Jesus by asking “What would Harry Potter do?” This year was all about courage, the courage to stand up, to fight for justice, to trust, to forgive, to change and to connect. Dumbledore’s Army laughed, played, prayed and learned about courage through the world of Harry Potter! There was also lots of dressing up for a Halloween feast, a Christmas feast and a Yule ball...and both girls made some great friends!

Rhys is 5th & Olivia is 8th from the left in the third row from the front. Rhys has the yellow lanyard and Olivia has glasses. Both girls happen to be wrapping their arms around their neighbor's shoulders!

Stewardship Updates

Your stewardship ministers have been working behind the scenes, planning re-painting the sanctuary, sprucing up the inside and outside to make a good impression on any new minister we hope to attract. We welcome any of your suggestions.

Meanwhile it will soon be pledge season, and we are confident that our belief in the mission and community of FCC will be reflected in generous support. We are looking for 100% participation..... as will any minister considering joining us! Keep that in mind. We are a financially solid church with committed, energetic leadership. This is a winning combination and should be attractive to a great minister in search of a new congregation.

Christmas Fair

Summer is over! Cars are headed south. You've dug the crayons out from between the couch cushions, scraped the blueberries off the floor, and put the grandchildren's bike and high chair back in the basement. You've sent the forgotten sweater back to the old friend from Texas who every year just loves the fact that you live in Maine. In our newly quiet houses, after the towels and sheets are dried we sit back and contemplate the next season..... Christmas Fair preparation!

The fair is social; it's colorful and merry; it's good fellowship; it's yummy! It's a great place to buy presents for your loved ones!

In case you may have forgotten, here are the many ways you can take part:

- * Donate Aunt Jean's china, or the unused drill, or the Christmas decorations you don't use.
(Do that any time – leave things on the stage - we will sort them!)
 - * Make and donate any extra jars of jams or preserves.
- * Donate little things to the children's store so they can buy for their parents.
 - * Make and donate candy.
- * Donate a weekend at your vacation home (mutually convenient time, of course).
 - * Donate a boating or fishing outing.
- * Donate a couple bushels of apples for us to make and freeze apple pies.
- * Donate a membership in your favorite non-profit (a double benefit).
 - * Donate a 1 hour consultation by your favorite professional (architect, financial planner, garden designer, personal trainer).
- Donate an unused antique piece of furniture.
Donate a gift certificate from a favorite store or restaurant.
- Join us to make crafty things – dates to be determined.
Work at the fair behind a table, or help set up before, or clean up after.
- Help in the kitchen.
Help decorate and organize the wreathes. Order a wreath.

And then come to the fair on Dec 3rd, have lunch with your friends, and buy wonderful things!

If you are interested in any of the above, contact me (cwardmd2@gmail.com) and I will point you in the right direction.

Best to all of you –

Carol Ward

MONTHLY MEMBERSHIP PROFILE

MMP is a regular column to the Steeplenotes newsletter. Each month the team of Glenny Dunbar and Peter Esterquest will reach out to, and interview a member of the church and then share the results of these personal and informative discussions here. It is hoped that these shared lives will expand and strengthen the heart of the church, and all those who come here. Be prepared for Glenny's and Peter's phone call to come your way soon!

Jill Ann Fox, known to all of us as Jill, is a true Mainer, born and bred. Her life began in her family's home on August 28th, 1943. She identifies her self as "a county girl" hailing from Wade, Maine in Aroostook County. Wade, she reports, consists of 5 roads, all dead ends, none of which connect.

Jill's family consisted of her parents Basil and Joyce (Porter) Fox, an older brother Gary who died 12 years ago from pancreatic cancer, her brother Ron, 2 years younger, who lives in Security, Colorado, and the youngest Jeffrey who is still in Aroostook County on Madawaska Lake. Jill is very close with her niece Tracy Whittier, Gary's daughter, who lives in North Waterboro with her husband and 4 children. Basil was a potato and dairy farmer. Joyce taught English, Biology and French at Washburn High School for 2 years. Among some old papers, Jill came across her mother's original teacher contract. It stated that she would earn $800 for the year and when she married, her contract would be terminated.

Following in her mother's footsteps, Jill became a teacher. After graduating from Washburn High School, she enrolled at Farmington State Teachers College, (now called U. Maine Farmington), where she obtained her degree. In 1965 she immediately began teaching Home Economics at Falmouth High School from where she retired 38 years later in 2003. While teaching, she earned her Masters degree from USM in 1972. When Jill began her job at Falmouth High, the superintendent asked pleadingly if she planned on staying more than a couple of years. Although he died before Jill retired, she still felt the need to check in with his wife making sure it was OK for her to go.

Jill has not slowed down much since retirement. She has been volunteering at the Falmouth Food pantry since 2006 where she is now a manager. The many activities at the Foreside Church have kept her involved and engaged. She enjoys knitting, quilting and reading, all of which she does at the church as well as at home. Jill has been seen in the Sunday school with the kids and was on the Fellowship committee for a number of years.

When Jill joined Foreside Community Church in 2006, Paul Shupe was the pastor. She had grown up in the Baptist Church, but had left there and likes to say she attended "St. Mattress by the Sea" for a number of years, taking her leisure on Sunday mornings. It was on her bucket list to find a church to belong to once she retired. Paul Shupe remembering her name the week after she first attended was enough to keep her coming back. The things Jill most appreciates about FCC are the sense of community and the variety of activities that are offered.

Jill did not hesitate to say that the people who made the biggest contribution to who she is today are her parents. Basil and Joyce instilled in her the importance of honesty, respect and putting others' needs before her own. From ages 6 through 17, when school was out for harvest, Jill picked potatoes on the family farm. After harvest they traveled to Bangor to buy their winter clothes. That experience shaped in her the value of hard work and gave her some early lessons in money management. She was also shaped by her experience with the 4H club, which gave her a push toward wanting to teach Home Economics, and also taught her leadership skills. In addition, she learned lessons in self-sufficiency, auctioning off cows to help pay for college.

Jill currently lives in Falmouth where she has been since 1965. She has been in the same house since 1972. Her live-in companion is her beloved cat Snuggles who turned 11 in August.

If you have never had the pleasure of hanging out with Jill, I would like to suggest that you avail yourself of that pleasure!

Habitat for Humanity Enjoys Another Successful Year, with the help of FCC Members

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my supporters for making my 19th year as a fund raiser for Habitat for Humanity such a great success, again.

Over the years, Foreside Community Church, UCC has received a number of "Thank You" letters from Habitat as together we raised the largest donation amount within our church community. Yes it takes time and lots of dedication. Lots of calls and also letters to write, and fortunately, the winter months are perfect for this style of fundraising, as well as humorously hearing, "Oh, it's that time again Claudia?!" Together, we have raised a total of $10,000.00, and built one house.

Falmouth resident, and newly appointed director of Habitat, Godfrey Wood, heard of me and my fundraising members at FCC and wanting to meet me, requested that we get together for lunch at the Falmouth Grill. We were joined by Laura Duplissi, HH's Communications and Volunteer Manager, who has delivered many envelopes of checks over the years. During this luncheon meeting, I informed Godfrey that I will fund raise for one more year, thus completing 20 years of support, subject to change...(Yes, you guessed right!)

So again, and for now, thank you all, without whom I could not do it.

Claudia Kinnear

In this photo from 1998, Claudia received her first Gold Hammer Award from Habitat. The Golden Hammer is extended by HH in recognition of volunteers who go above and beyond in their collection efforts.

The "Greater Portland Family Promise" homeless families program, will begin in this area as the first families start arriving on September 10 at the Falmouth Congregational Church. At this time, it is expected that anywhere from one to four families may be expected. The families will stay for one week at Falmouth Congo, and then if permanent housing has not been located, they will move to another host congregation and begin the support process all over again.

Foreside Community Church, not having the physical resources to host overnight guests, can help in an assortment of other ways by, donating items to make lunches for the families (fruit, bars, tuna, bread, snack-packs, juice boxes etc. and plastic sandwich bags), collecting single sheets, pillow cases, towels, and blankets for the host churches to use, and, possibly providing cooked and delivered dinners if asked. A basket is located in the narthex for any of the above suggested donations. A three-hour training program for interested volunteers is scheduled on Tuesday, September 5, 9:00am-12:00pm at HopeGateWay, 509 Forest Ave. To fully appreciate the extent of this 31-year-old, 42 state wide program, please go to www.greaterportlandfamilypromise.org. You will be able to read the full weekly agenda for these families as they move through the supporting church community on their way to a hoped for home.

Please also note that October's Mission Moment will be presented by a "Family Promise" staff member. In the meantime, please contact Dotty Blanchette at dorothyb@maine.rr.com or 239-2551 with any questions.

“The Guys Next Door”

Foreside Community Church is joining with First Parish Yarmouth and two other Yarmouth churches to co-sponsor a spectacular documentary. It is about Ellie and Peter Mercer’s son Erik and his husband Sandro in fathering two children with the help of a surrogate mother.

Entitled “The Guys Next Door”, the feature-length documentary (74 minutes) offers an alternative to the traditional ideas of what constitutes the nuclear family. Meet Erik and his husband an Italian immigrant, who live in Maine and have two daughters birthed by their friend Rachel with donor eggs.

Spanning over three years in the lives of Sandro, Erik and their extended family, the film, shot both in Italy and the U.S., explores complicated questions of identify: How does becoming a parent challenge how we see ourselves? What are the factors that influence who we become? Can we control what we pass onto our children? Told with candor and humor, “The Guys Next Door” is an inspiring story that brings to light the humanity that connects us all.
