Notes from Pastor Geoff

Being the Church

Happy New Year, Dear Foreside Friends!

In the season of Epiphany, like shepherds and wise ones who glimpsed the new born savior, we strive to share the news of great joy we have found. It invites us to learn the practice of bearing witness in our world and in our lives to God's love and justice.

As I'm writing to you, we are observing what we hope is a brief suspension of worship for two Sundays, hoping we can help our own—and the wider—community slow the current spread of COVID-19, and hoping we can all safely enjoy time with our families. Yet, this is also an act of public witness: of care for the most vulnerable among us, and for the health care workers that will hopefully be receiving needed relief and support in the coming week from national partners.

A few months ago, in response to an act of vandalism against a nearby church with a sign proclaiming Black Lives Matter, a Governing Board conversation sprang up about how our congregation proclaims our belief in God's hope for justice, and how we carry that message to our community and neighbors. It was a good and faithful discussion that started thinking about a sign, but asked deeper questions: about how we discern as a congregation where we are called to raise our collective voice, and how we make sure that our actions and ministry align with that discernment and pronouncements. We noticed that this is a way of sharing our faith that we have varying levels of comfort with—both more and less—as a group.

In the month of Epiphany, then, you will notice that we will be using our sign down on Foreside Road a little differently. Each week, we'll be sharing—both with our neighbors and community, and within our own worship and reflections—a series of calls to “Be the Church” in the world which the United Church of Christ began sharing with congregations a number of years ago.

Be the Church

Embrace Diversity

Reject Racism

Share Earthly and Spiritual Resources

Care for the Poor

Protect the Environment

Enjoy this Life

Love God

Forgive Often (For Lent!)

This is, perhaps, a small spiritual practice; a chance to “try on” more ways in which we hope to share what God is calling us to as a people, and get more comfortable sharing that call with others. The world, and yes, the church, are changing rapidly, so these calls to witness and action may change, deepen, or develop as well... but that is nothing new. At the founding of the United Church of Christ, the uniting churches proclaimed in the preamble to their new constitution:

[we affirm] the responsibility of the Church in each generation to make this faith its own in reality of worship, in honesty of thought and expression, and in purity of heart before God.

So, as we explore the church we are called to join God's (re)-creation of, I hope that you'll join with us in this practice of listening for Christ's call to us: where we are called to stand with others in solidarity in the hope for justice... where to listen, where to act, and where to speak as one in this unique body of Christ gathered here on the Foreside.

Merry Christmas, and blessings to you in the New Year!

Geoff

I am fully vaccinated and am available for times to visit, sit, or pray together as you would like. If you would like to schedule a meeting, you can do so here, or by contacting me by email.

Blessings of the Spirit to you.

A MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNING BOARD MODERATOR

As we prepare to greet the new year, we're again facing unsettling news about the pandemic. Covid cases continue to rise with the Omicron variant, and health experts anticipate the surge will continue well into January. This is not how we were hoping to begin 2022; we're all experiencing some degree of Covid fatigue, but our church community must make responsible choices about gathering for worship.

Rev. Geoff and the Governing Board have assessed the current risks and have agreed that the most prudent course of action is to suspend in-person worship services for the month of January and offer an on-line option as we have previously. We will continue to monitor conditions and make adjustments as guidelines indicate.

Best wishes to all for a safe and healthy new year!

Deborah

Tuesday Morning Study Group Update

When we resume on Tuesday, January 4 via Zoom. We are going to read Padraig O'Tuama's book In the Shelter: Finding a Home in the World. According to Amazon it is an "unforgettable memoir of peace and reconciliation, Celtic spirituality, belonging, and sexual identity. "It is in the shelter of each other that the people live" Drawing on this Irish saying O'Tuama relates ideas of shelter and welcome to our journeys of life, using poetry, story, biblical reflection, and prose to open up gentle ways of living well in a troubled world." I hope you all enjoy your holidays if our paths do not cross before January 4th, when our gathering resumes.

The Foreside Book Club...

...ended up the calendar year with a small group but a big discussion of The Vanishing Half. The books become so much more meaningful after discussions like that. Thank you all for participating. We have decided to move to Zoom in January so hopefully more of you will be able to join us safely and conveniently. We will still be meeting on the third Wednesday of the month but the time may change to either 3:00, 3:30 or 4:00 p.m. Stay tuned. Our choice for January 19 is Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman. The story centers on Eleanor Oliphant, a social misfit with a traumatic past who becomes enamored with a singer, whom she believes she is destined to be with. The novel deals with themes of isolation and loneliness, and depicts Eleanor's transformational journey towards a fuller understanding of self and life. For those of you who like to plan ahead, we have chosen the next 3 books:

February 16 - East of Eden by John Steinbeck

March 16 - Shuggie Bain by Douglas Stuart

April 20 - Case Histories by Kate Atkinson

Hopefully you will find some that appeal to you. We tried to pick several different genres, so start reading now and mark your calendars. As always anyone is welcome and encouraged to attend any discussion. I will let you know the chosen time and send out a Zoom link ahead of time. Hope you all have a happy and healthy new year. Christmas Angels ~ Thank you for the generosity of so many in our congregation for participating in Justice & Outreach's 2021 Christmas Angel project. Because of your kindness sixty-five children in need of warm winter clothes are now ready for winter. In addition to the warm clothes provided by so many in our congregation, extra donated handmade knit hats and scarves were added to the gifts for parents and grown siblings. Delivering the gifts was an adventure for all of the volunteer elves! Some of the parents wanted to hide the gifts until Christmas but many others felt it was important for their children to immediately use their new clothes. It was fun watching the 5-year-old girl hug her colorful new shoes. And there was the 11 year old girl who would not take off her new jacket and kept repeating, "I have a coat, I have a coat." May everyone in the congregation think of the joy you have brought to these children.

FCC Responds to Family in Crisis ~ Emergency need calls are often received at the church office or to Dorothy and we work as a team to respond quickly. Just before Thanksgiving, Opportunity Alliance contacted us about a family of five that was in desperate need of everything- winter clothes, bedding, food, furniture, kitchen equipment and more. They were evicted from their apartment because their landlord decided that he wanted to move in. Lacking the funds to pay for storage, they had to abandon everything that did not fit into their car. FCC office sent out a notice of the need and our congregation immediately responded! Thanks to the compassion of many in our community this family received all of the most crucially needed supplies within the week including winter clothes, towels, blankets and more. Additional help was offered, and the family now has many of the basic furniture items they need. It is truly a blessing to know that FCC is always ready to reach out to those in need and that our church family will share so generously.

(Still...) Calling all strong Men, Women and Youth.....

WE NEED YOU!!!

(L. Ventre)

Want to give back to our church community but don't have a lot of free time? Have so many meetings now that you just can't face another? Have some muscles that need to be put to good use and not just at the gym? Want to be appreciated by many in our community? If you answered yes to any or all of these questions, then join Dr. "J" Goodrich, Pastor Chuck Erb, Pete Ventre, and Christina, the first volunteers to join the FCC Muscle Brigade.

Fellowship is hoping to expand this list of members and friends who live close to the church who would be willing to be on a call list for our committee as well as any other committee, ministry, or group in the church who need help in setup for events. Christina will keep the list, so it is available to all. Many times, it is a very quick thing but impossible for those of us who are organizing the events due to our physical condition or age. If you volunteer, as a need for strength arises another church member will call you to ask for help. They should be able to give you a time to show up and about how long it will take to set up. You just have to show up and carry and/or move things. Normally there are plenty of people around after an event to help pick up so I suspect this will be mostly set up.

If you are willing to help us, please email Christina with your name, email address and phone number (csklarz@foresidechurch.org). Give any times that just will not work for you so we don't waste your time or ours with a call.

The Portland Trumpet Ensemble (as pictured on the cover of this month's newsletter) was founded in 2016 and features some of the best trumpeters in Maine. Members are graduates of music schools across the country. In addition to frequent solo performances, they have performed with the Portland, Bangor, and Midcoast Symphony Orchestras, the Reading and Harrisburg (PA) Symphony Orchestras, the Philadelphia Brass Quintet, the Mainstreet Brass Quintet, the Casco Bay Wind Ensemble, the 207 Wind Ensemble, and many other musical organizations throughout Maine and the Northeast. The Portland Trumpet Ensemble includes players from all walks of life – doctors, lawyers, educators, and students who come together with a few goals in mind: to play great trumpet ensemble music, to have fun while doing it, and to entertain their audiences. FCC wishes to once again thank its choir director and ensemble member Trevor Lavenbein for bringing this amazingly talented group to play during their 2021 holiday concert series. For more information, and to view upcoming concerts check out PTE's Facebook page.

“Join Pete Ventre on January 13th at 7 p.m. via Zoom (link to follow) for a rafting adventure above the Arctic Circle in the least visited national park, Gates of the Arctic National Park. The park and preserve are an American national treasure that protects portions of the Brooks Range in northern Alaska. The park is the northernmost national park in the United States, situated entirely north of the Arctic Circle. With no roads, no trails, and no established campsites, the park has no set routes in place and visitors may wander at will across 8.4 million acres of superlative natural beauty. There are no established services within the park boundaries and only limited means of communication work effectively to contact anyone for assistance. Cell phones don't work here. If you like wilderness, this is the trip for you. Please do not miss the telling of this amazing adventure.”

2021 Christmas Fair Closure

The final tally continues as payments are still received, and the decorations are once again put into storage. Under Carol Ward’s creative and energetic facilitation, another successful, two-event fair has concluded. Thank you seems so inadequate, but is extended to the team of volunteers who brought their time and talents, as well all the donors and material contributors.

~ important notes from the office ~

The year end is approaching, and what a great time to thank everyone for their faithful, financial support of our church. If you have not yet completed, or, wish to enhance your annual tithe, the office will need to receive your contribution as soon as possible but no later than January 3, 2022. Checks that are to be applied to the 2021 calendar year should be dated no later than December 31, 2021. If you choose to use your credit card as a payment method, you will need to go online and do so no later than Friday, December 31. Please do not hesitate to call Christina at 781-5880 if assistance or clarification is required.

Starting in January, the office will be revising its hours of open operation. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday will observe the regular hours of 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. On Wednesday and Friday, the office will be open and available 9:00 a.m. up until noon, at which time it will be closed to traffic. If in doubt, please call 781-5880 for assistance
