

Connecting to God ~ Nurturing Community ~ Discovering how our Lives Make a Difference

"We promise our love, support, and care to Hayes, her parents, and to all who will join together to nurture them within the faith and family of Jesus Christ."

And so Hayes Hamill was brought into the family of God within FCC on September 27, 2026.

PASTORAL NOTES

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good...All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. - 1 Corinthians 12:4-7, 11

What difference does a community of faith make?

As people who have found meaning in being part of a welcoming, worshipping, and serving community, we often think of the difference that church makes for us... We reflect on particular relationships, practices, and callings that come to us through the church. But, of course, that's often a view of our church's footprint from the 'GPS satellite'. Those things which fit within the walls or a few hours of worship, fellowship, and learning. We don't take up much space, our sweet meeting house and sanctuary perched overlooking Casco Bay.

In fact, the footprint of any church—and definitely ours—is much wider, really... defined not by the dimensions of property lines and structures, but by the way the community flows in and out sharing resources, and the gathered people and gifts spread out each Sunday afternoon throughout the week. Yes, our life here is enriched by all that you bring to our worship and learning, music and connecting... but there are many more hours in the week in which the world is most touched and transformed by the ways in which you make the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and the presence of Christ felt by who you are and how you serve as a unique blessing to and member of this church.

This fall and winter, we're learning about Nanna's House and their care for children in Maine encountering the foster system, partly through a faithful connection by our friend Marty Scarlett. We're continuing to nurture connection with and care for the children of Pine Ridge Reservation and the Oglala Sioux peoples with Lisa Nash. We're sustaining and nourishing families through Dotty Blanchette and our many volunteers and partners with the Falmouth Food Pantry, and with the historic connection that our friend Alex Nickerson made to the Lo-oc Food Pantry in the Philippines years ago.

Far beyond the difference made from direct connections to the church, there is the difference that you all make in our local community and the world in your daily work lives. Here in this place are people working for an end to domestic and intimate partner violence, for more access to life-saving treatments for HIV and AIDS, for spiritual and practical responses to climate change, and creating community and joy for those adapting to disabilities. You teach English as a second language, provide tax assistance to those with need, give time and even blood to care for others during medical crisis. You conserve and teach the beauty of the earth and create loving camp communities which care for children and strive to make peace in the world. You love God, the world, and its people... and it shows.

This is by no means a complete list! (And pastors should know better than to start listing blessings, we'll always leave out something important...) But the impact of this community is vast and cannot be counted, thanks to the gifts you carry within you and the spirit of generosity which calls them out of you.

This fall is also a season in which we gather gifts for our mutual life and ministry. I am so thankful for those who are leading with generosity and vision through our Capital Campaign and the upcoming Annual Appeal which sustains all we do each year. I hope you will all prayerfully consider how you can support these good works in the time to come. Above all, I give thanks for all of you and that power of God "capable of more than we could ask or imagine."

To look out over our congregation on a Sunday morning is to see the diverse and abundant work of the Holy Spirit. May we continue to be grateful for all the varieties of gifts which make this community of Christ one in which we see the richness of God's abiding love and hope... and seek to share them.

I am available for times to visit, sit, or pray together as you would like. If you would like to schedule a meeting, you can do so here, or by contacting me by email.

*Blessings of the Spirit to you
Pastor Geoff*

On the road and missing a sermon? Want to go back and revisit any one sermon? Want to share a sermon with a friend or family member? Pastor Geoff's sermons in both written and audio form from May 2019 and including Easter services (minus "Prayers on the Patio") can be viewed and/or heard on FCC's website at:

<http://www.foresidechurch.org/index.php/category/sermons/>

Centering Prayer has reconvened on Wednesdays at 10 a.m. Join with Pastor Geoff and others in the pastor's office and explore the practice and ideas of centering prayer, a meditative practice from the contemplative Christian tradition. No prior experience is necessary.

Supporting the Ministry of FCC

As we work to continue to offer ministry inside and out of our congregation in a time of so much instability, we would invite you consider how you can continue to support our work in the world. Please know that if you would like to mail a gift or regular pledge payment to the church office, the office will be open to receive that gift.

If you would like to make a one time gift online, or if you would like create an account for a monthly recurring gift, you may do so through PayPal by going to our giving page and clicking the "Donate" button.

Thank you for the ways you share from your lives and empower the ministry of the church, offering connection, nurturing, and support here and in the wider world!

Worship in the sanctuary...

...and attendance on Sundays is open to all with the following protocols in place:

- Mask wearing is voluntary (a supply can be located in the narthex).
- We ask households to give each other good social distance.
- Worship continues to also be live-streamed for attending convenience by going to:

<https://www.youtube.com/ForesideCommunityChurch>

Bulletins for each service, including words to that day's hymns are also posted at the above website address.

The Christmas Fair is right around the corner!

Start planning your check list now:

(and further details will be provided shortly)

Donate a Timeless Treasure that is not getting used, or that croquet set gathering dust in the basement!

Donate your best culinary concoction for a dinner for the silent auction!

Bake something yummy for the tummy for the baked goods table.

Make candy!

Donate a piece of costume jewelry you haven't worn in years.

Order your Christmas wreath.

Fill a basket for the silent auction!

Suggestions: Travel items, birthday items, "green" supplies.

Fire up your knitting needles and make mittens! A hat! A scarf!

In the meantime, and starting October 1, come see us in the Fellowship Hall on Thursdays between 1 and 3 p.m. – Bring your donations or your hands to lend, or your brain to share ideas. We work, we talk, we laugh – and the more fun we have, the greater success we can plan for on the big day, and the more lasting the memories; an unbeatable combination!

Mark your calendars....

FALL

CLEAN-UP DAY

is a-comin'!!

Join us and you too can have as much fun as this mirth-filled couple, pictured here!

But first, a few qualifying questions for our would-be volunteers...

Do you take your FCC membership commitment seriously, like these two clearly do?

Do you have an unyielding work ethic that is written all over your face?

Can you wield a pitchfork – I mean yard rake – with a vise-like death grip?

If you answered YES to any one of the questions above, then have we got a job for YOU!

Saturday, October 31st 9:00 AM – noonish

Wear your “not-for-fun” apron and your “I-mean-business” overalls.

Bring your “these-ain’t-for-sissies” yard tools. (If you don’t have ‘em, we’ll supply ‘em.)

Show us what you got and we just may reward you with donut holes and apple cider...IF you can unclench your jaw long enough to partake...

Please see the sign-up sheet in the Narthex! We would love to know if you can join us on Halloween morning for an hour or more...

and Shhhhh! Don’t tell anyone, but you might just have a little fellowship and fun!

Thanks, and we hope to see you then!

Green Team Extends Invitations

You are invited to walk the new Riverfront Woods Preserve in Yarmouth on Sunday, October 4 at 2 PM. This totally accessible one-mile trail, was designed with input from our Wabanaki neighbors, and it includes a dozen beautiful signs, unlike anything else in greater Portland.

The Foreside Church will not have morning worship that day because Route 88 will be closed for the Maine Marathon. Instead, the Green Team offers us the chance to tap into the wisdom of Maine's first people by walking this trail together. The address is Riverfront Drive in Yarmouth, 6 miles from the Foreside Church. Maine Master Naturalist Susan Gilpin will lead the walk. To protect wild life, dogs are not permitted in the preserve.

The preserve supports beavers, otters, deer and a variety of bird species and distinct flora, creating a surprisingly remote experience for paddling in the summer and skating, snowshoeing, and skiing in the winter. The trails are designed for wheelchairs, baby carriages, and comfortable walking. Dogs and bikes are not permitted, increasing the remote experience of the preserve. LOCATION: At the end of Riverfront Drive (off East Elm Street near the East Elm and North Road Intersection), Yarmouth. After the walk, the Goodrich's invite everyone to their new home for refreshments. Printed copies of the directions will be provided that day.

Some of the signs posted along the trail.

The BTS Center is hosting an on-line book study group in October to read and reflect on Reading the Bible on Turtle Island: An Invitation to North American Indigenous Interpretation by T. Christopher Hoklotubbe and H. Daniel Zacharias. The group will meet on five Thursdays in October — October 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29 — from 4 - 5:30 p.m. via Zoom with the authors joining the discussion on October 29. Daniel Zacharias is Cree-Anishinaabe / Metis from Winnipeg, Manitoba and serves as associate dean and professor of New Testament students at Acadia Divinity College in Nova Scotia. Christopher Hoklotubbe is a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma, earned his Doctorate of Theology at Harvard University and directs the Indigenous Theological Initiative of Bexley Seabury Seminary. Both are members of NAITTS, an indigenous learning community. For more information and to register, contact www.btscenter.org

Let's Talk About Clothing!

You're invited to a Green Team drop-in sharing session on Sunday, October 18, 11 am, in the parlor. We'll talk about clothing and how our choices impact the environment. Do you consider the environment when you buy new clothing? How long do you keep your clothes? When it's outgrown, out of fashion, out of size or just no longer appealing, how do you dispose of it? What about children's clothing? Are the rules different than for adults? This is a casual conversation with folks sharing their discoveries, their ideas, their questions.

Thank you!

FCC Book Club Updates

The Foreside Book Club started off the new season with a lengthy and in depth discussion of The Signature of All Things by Elizabeth Gilbert. We talked for an hour and a half and could have kept right on going. We managed to touch on all the major themes and characters and how they all fit together by the end. A truly remarkable novel by a great writer!. The books always mean so much more after listening to everyone's input!

Now onto the next book, Stoner by John Williams (summary follows). That meeting will be on Wednesday, October 21 in the upstairs classroom of the church at 4:00 p.m. As always, all are welcome to attend any meeting for a friendly and non-judgmental hour of conversation. You won't regret it! Mark your calendars, and happy reading.

The son of a Midwestern farmer, William Stoner comes to the University of Missouri in 1910 to study agriculture. He had intended to return home and take over his father's farm - but instead, inspired by the professor of English literature, he remains at the university to teach. Stoner tells of love and conflict, passion and responsibility against the backdrop of academic life in the early 20th century. Powerfully and movingly written, Stoner is a study of a dedicated man relentlessly committed to honesty in himself and in his dealings with others. The truth of one man's unassuming life can rarely have been captured with such skill and beauty." (Amazon)

Like to Work With your Hands?

Justice and Outreach has been working with a friend of the church who had extremely high heating bills last winter. In further support J&O is now also working with WindowDressers, a volunteer group that builds custom-measured wood and plastic film window-insulating inserts. (For more information on this amazing non-profit please check out WindowDressers.org)

The windows have been measured, and now the assembly will take place at PassivHaus on 35 Main Street, Suite B in Freeport from October 23rd thru October 27th, with shifts from 8-12 and 1-5 p.m. It is hoped that some of you can help. There are skilled volunteers supervising the work. You can sign up on line at the above WindowDressers web page, or contact me if you are interested or have questions. Thank you. Lois Myers

THIS IS A CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS IN SUPPORT OF...

...the October 22, 2026, free-will roast turkey dinner hosted by the Falmouth faith communities and held at the Falmouth Congregational Church.

The sign-up poster is located in the downstairs reception area AND.

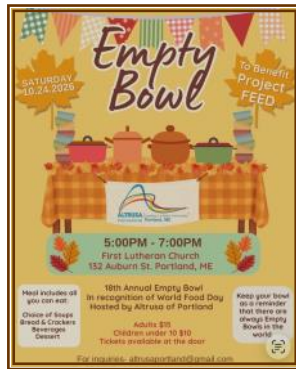

..already gathering names, but many hands are still needed. If you are unable to participate this year, financial donations are also gladly accepted. All donations are tax deductible and will benefit the Falmouth Food Pantry.

And of course, everyone is invited to attend this free dinner!

A "SOUPER" DINNER INVITATION!

Project FEED has been helping Cumberland County neighbors in need since 1975, and I've been on their Board for a long time. The "Empty Bowl" event will be their only fundraiser of the year. It's an all-you-can-eat soup supper, and dessert. There are a wide variety of homemade soups to choose from. Many of the bowls are handmade and you can take them home with you! Please consider joining me on October 24th, 5 to 7 p.m. at the First Lutheran Church in Portland to support this amazing and invaluable resource. Details follow on the poster. Please feel free to also contact me with further questions. Thank you! Lois Myers

Thank you to our entire church family for your generous donations for Nanna's House. J&O has filled more than 8 cartons with underwear, Pajamas of all sizes and styles, and a carton filled with individual toiletries ready to give to the children. Everything was so carefully chosen and will be a real help to the children entering Nanna's House programs. You have as usual opened your hearts to those in need. Thank you from Justice & Outreach.

A generous collection from "big hearts," AKA, FFC members and friends.

Fellowship Updates

Nothing better than having to find more chairs than anticipated for the Welcome Back Potluck. I am sure that is a reflection of a couple of things. First and foremost, our love for David and Trevor. Who would not want to celebrate the fabulous 10 years of music they share with us? Second, we are truly a community who loves to get together.

Thanks to all who brought delicious dishes to share. Mark your calendars for our next potluck on November 6th. We are bringing back the Three Sisters Potluck so be thinking about recipes with beans, squash, or corn! Thanks also to all those who helped clean up. We could not do it without your help.

The "Book Shelf" is Turning Over

I am in the process of thinning out the bookshelf so there is room for new books to join it. If there is a book you have been thinking of taking, take now as I might be pulling that one. Remember, only add books you read and enjoyed to this shelf.

Puzzles

If you have never been a puzzler, now is the time to try it! It is a perfect evening or rainy day activity which is fun for all ages. We are amassing quite a collection of puzzles of different sizes and reas of difficulty.

I would love to know which ones have been done by you so that when I thin this out and give a selection to the church fair to sell, I am giving those which have been done by most people. That way our puzzlers will have new things to try. All you have to do is add your name to the back of the puzzles. I have placed a sticky on most of them as I complete them. I can't seem to keep up with how fast they are arriving. I will catch up – someday!

"SRO" at the Welcome Back/ Music Men 10 Year Anni- versary Celebration!

Thanks for more chairs Scott!
